

Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement

Gleadell Agriculture Ltd and Dunns (Long Sutton) Ltd, hereinafter 'the Company' provides services and products including the marketing of combinable crops, fertiliser, seed and pulses, the processing of seed and pulses including the associated management of haulage, storage and elevation of crops to a standard meeting customer, industry, statutory and regulatory requirements.

Company policy embraces the Ethical Trading Initiative (ETI) Base Code and covers areas such as freedom of association and forced labour, clearly defining that forced labour and freedom of association are unacceptable to the company.

To ensure compliance with our ethical standards the company is a member of the Supplier Ethical Data Exchange (SEDEX), a member organisation dedicated to driving improvements in responsible and ethical business practices in global supply chains. SEDEX are able to support and advise the business providing a global view on the supply chain. SEDEX has created the SEDEX Members Ethical Trade Audit (SMETA). The company has achieved and maintains conformity to the SMETA 4 Pillar requirements.

When necessary the company will use the SEDEX platform to report on trends across the supply chain where there may be the possibility of forced or bonded labour.

The company will ensure all employees are suitably trained and have an understanding of the company policy relating to the Ethical Trading Initiative (ETI) Base Code and the Supplier Ethical Data Exchange (SEDEX).

The Company recognise that the issue of human trafficking is a global issue and often difficult to detect. We acknowledge that our relationships, commitment and open communication with our supply chain are critical to ensure that any issues are detected and resolved.

D Sheppard
Managing Director
October 2015

